All User Content transmitted or posted on the Site will be considered non-confidential and non-proprietary and SATA-IO will have no obligations with respect to the confidentiality or security of User Content except as otherwise provided for herein. SATA-IO reserves the right to terminate any link or linking program at any time. SATA-IO does not endorse companies or products to which it links and reserves the right to note as such on the Site. If you decide to access any of the third party sites linked to this Site, you do this entirely at your own risk.

AMENDMENTS: You agree that SATA-IO may amend these Terms from time to time, including by changing anything in these Terms (“Amendments”). With respect to the text of these Terms, we will post a new version of the Terms on the Site prior to the effective date of the amended version (“Effective Date”). The Effective Date of each version of these Terms will usually be shown at the beginning of the Terms document: if you see a date that is later than the date you last reviewed the Terms, review the latest version because it will apply as of its Effective Date and until the next version is posted. You agree to periodically visit this page from time to time to review the then-current Terms. Those who choose to access this site from locations outside the U.S. do so on their own initiative and at their own risk and are responsible for compliance with applicable local laws. You may not use or export the Content in violation of U.S. export laws and regulations. You agree that the Agreement and all claims of every nature shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to conflict of law provisions. You agree that any disputes shall be heard exclusively in the appropriate forum in the State of Oregon. You also consent to jurisdiction in a state or federal court located in the State of Oregon and waive any claim or defense that such forum is not convenient or proper, and consent to service of process by any means authorized by Oregon or federal law.

TERMINATION: SATA-IO may terminate this Agreement, including your right to access the Site, with or without cause or prior notice. SATA-IO may further suspend or block access to the Site whenever it appears that you might be breaching these Terms or otherwise about to cause harm or damage to others.

NOTICE OF COPYRIGHT AGENT: SATA-IO respects the intellectual property rights of others and requests that you do the same. Anyone who believes that their work has been reproduced in the Site in a way constituting copyright infringement may provide a notice to the designated Copyright Agent for the Site containing the following: (a) an electronic or physical signature of a person authorize to act on behalf of the owner of the copyright interest; (b) identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed; (c) identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing and information reasonably sufficient to permit SATA-IO to locate the material; (d) the address, telephone number, and, if available, an email address at which the complaining party may be contacted; (e) a representation that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law; and (f) a representation that the information in the notice is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed. Copyright infringement claims and notices should be sent to the attention of our Copyright Agent, in accordance with the Notice section set forth above.

AGREEMENT; MISCELLANEOUS: These Terms, including items incorporated into them and any (a) additional terms on the Site or otherwise provided by SATA-IO for particular activities, and (b) disclosures provided by SATA-IO and consents provided by you on the Site (collectively, the "Agreement"), constitute the entire agreement between us and neither party has relied on any representations made by the other that are not expressly set forth in the Agreement. If any part of the Agreement is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, then that part will be deemed superseded by an enforceable provision that most closely matches the intent of the original and honors the allocation of risks in these Terms and the remainder of the Terms will continue in effect. SATA-IO's failure to act with respect to a breach does not waive SATA-IO's right to act as to subsequent or similar breaches. There are no third party beneficiaries of any part of the Agreement.
